

The Fulton Photographers' Tents

Fulton Photographers' Tents are designed to meet perfectly every requirement of photographers. Our prices are the lowest consistent with high grade material and workmanship. They are based on manufacturing cost, with only one profit added. Tents are made full size and of full weight material. If you buy tents for less money, you necessarily buy lower quality. Sample card sent free showing quality and weights of material and instructing how to judge a tent. The Fulton brand tents are the only guaranteed tents; made in our own factory, under our own supervision; the best tents made.

The prices of Photographers' Tents below include one skylight, manila guy ropes, poles and pins. The weights given below include poles, and may vary on account of the weight of poles not always being the same.
